

ID AT THE POLLS FAQs

Can I use a picture ID with no address and a utility bill?

Yes, but only if the picture ID is a US Passport or a US Military ID. You can use one of those picture IDs along with a non-photo ID from List 2. If the address matches the Signature Roster you vote a standard ballot.

Can I use a valid Drivers License with a bad address?

Yes, you can mix and match the photo ID with a non-photo ID from List 2. If the address matches the Signature Roster you vote a standard ballot. If you don't have a non-photo ID with the correct address you simply vote a regular provisional ballot and you do NOT have to return with any other ID.

Can you use two items from List 2 if the addresses on those items do not match the signature roster?

Yes, you vote a regular provisional ballot and you do NOT have to return with any other ID.

Can I use a statement from the same bank or utility, but two different months?

No, you must have statements from two different sources.

Can I bring you my passport and a utility bill with an address?

Yes, because your passport can be used along with any ID from List 2.

My address says Phoenix, but I live in Scottsdale. Will they let me vote in the Scottsdale election?

Yes. If the address on your ID matches the signature roster, you will vote a regular ballot. If the address does NOT match the signature roster, you will vote a regular provisional ballot, but you do not have to return with any other ID.

If all of the bills are in my husband's name, but my name is on the bank statement, can I use the bank statement and you can see that we both live at the same house?

You can use the bank statement, if you provide one additional item with your name and address from List 2. Each item provided must have your name and address on it.

Can I use my health club ID or Costco Card that has my name, picture and address if it is dated within 90 days?

No. It must be a government issued ID.

Can I use my paycheck from Maricopa County, which has my name and address on it, and a utility bill as ID?

No. You can use the utility bill, if it has your name and address, but a Maricopa County paycheck is not on List 1 or List 2.

Can I use my visa card that has my picture on it as my ID? What if I also bring the bill for it that also has my address?

No, they are not on List 1 or List 2.

What about my auto insurance card?

Yes, your vehicle insurance card can be used with an additional item from List 2 providing both items have your name and address on them.

Can I use my Military ID?

Yes, because your Military ID can be used along with any non-photo ID from List 2.

Can I use my NRA card as my ID? What about my conceal and carry permit? What if I also bring my firearm?

No to the NRA card. No to the permit. It entitles you to carry your firearm concealed but it does not constitute a government ID. No you cannot bring your firearm in the polling place.

Can I use my law enforcement identification (like a badge) as ID? What about County ID?

Yes, if your law enforcement ID has your address on it. Yes, if your County ID has your address on.

If I have nothing from List 1 and only one item from List 2, can I vote?

You can vote a “conditional” provisional ballot. You will have to return and provide one item from List 1 or two items from List 2.

If I have a driver’s license from another state can I vote?

You can vote a “conditional” provisional ballot. You will have to return and provide one item from List 1 or two items from List 2.

Native Americans Tribal Enrollment cards – do I need to come back if there is no picture?

No, you would vote a regular provisional ballot.

If a tribal member does not have any ID from List 1 or List 2 can they vote?

They can vote a “conditional” provisional ballot. They will have to return after the election and provide one item from List 1 or two items from List 2.

Can I bring two utility bills and give my husband a copy of each to use for his ID?

Yes. As long as they are bills from two different utilities and they have both of your names on them.

My husband and I do all our banking online and we get our bank statement and credit union statement via email. Can I print two of each statement so my husband and I each have a set to use for ID?

Yes. However, both of your names must be on the account.